

DANGER COAST: A TV series following the department's fireboat rescuers, also produced by 2C Media, is to begin airing next month. The 10-episode "Danger Coast" is to debut April 9 on CMT. "'Danger Coast' is one of the first nationally televised English language series a commercial network has produced and developed entirely in Miami-Dade," county documents say. "Nearly all production and post production will remain in Miami-Dade County resulting in a direct and indirect economic impact of $1.5 million." Animal Planet's "Animal Cops" also follows
